ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The Rev. E. O. Taylor, who recently resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church at Middlebury, has gone to Peru, Mo., where he has accepted a call.

Former State Superintendent of Education Mason S. Stone and Mrs. Stone sailed from San Francisco Saturday for a several months' trip to China and Japan.

Col. Joseph Battell, who has returned to Middlebury from his summer home at Rippon, will go South for the winter in about six weeks. He is busy with the compilation of material for several new books upon Morgan horses.

The Vermont Marble Co., Proctor, has offered to give the town of Rutland a complete fire department and to maintain the same if the city of Rutland will extend its water mains so that the town can thus get its supply. This will probably be done and the offer accepted.

The graphite find recently made in Rippon, some twelve miles east of Middlebury, is to be actively operated the coming spring, and the product probably will be shipped to a grinding mill across Lake Champlain, as the location of the mine does not warrant building a mill there.

C. J. Bell Pomona Grange was instituted at Cornwall Monday evening, Governor Bell being present and taking a prominent part in the exercises. Representatives from six granges were present. This is the thirteenth Pomona Grange to be instituted in the state and is the largest yet organized, 230 members taking the oath of admission.

Three years ago as Fred Hancock of Coventry was picking over beans he discovered a small black seed, probably a seed from a potato ball which he planted in a common flower pot. It proved to be a potato which yielded a handful of small potatoes; the next spring he planted these and from this he raised four and one-half pounds of potatoes, and last spring he planted the four and one-half pounds and this fall the yield was 150 pounds, all nice eating potatoes.

Ninety of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Chedel of Randolph called at their home on School street Saturday evening and tendered them a very pleasant surprise party and reception in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Chedel moved to this town from Pittsfield about three weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Chedel were presented with several very nice silver presents by their friends. Among those from out of town who were present were his mother, Mrs. Chedel, and H. Chadwick of Franklin, N. H.; their sons, Robert and Charles, who came from Hanover, N. H., where they are attending Dartmouth college, Miss Clara Chedel and Orley Whitcomb of Woodstock.
